Guide for Authors

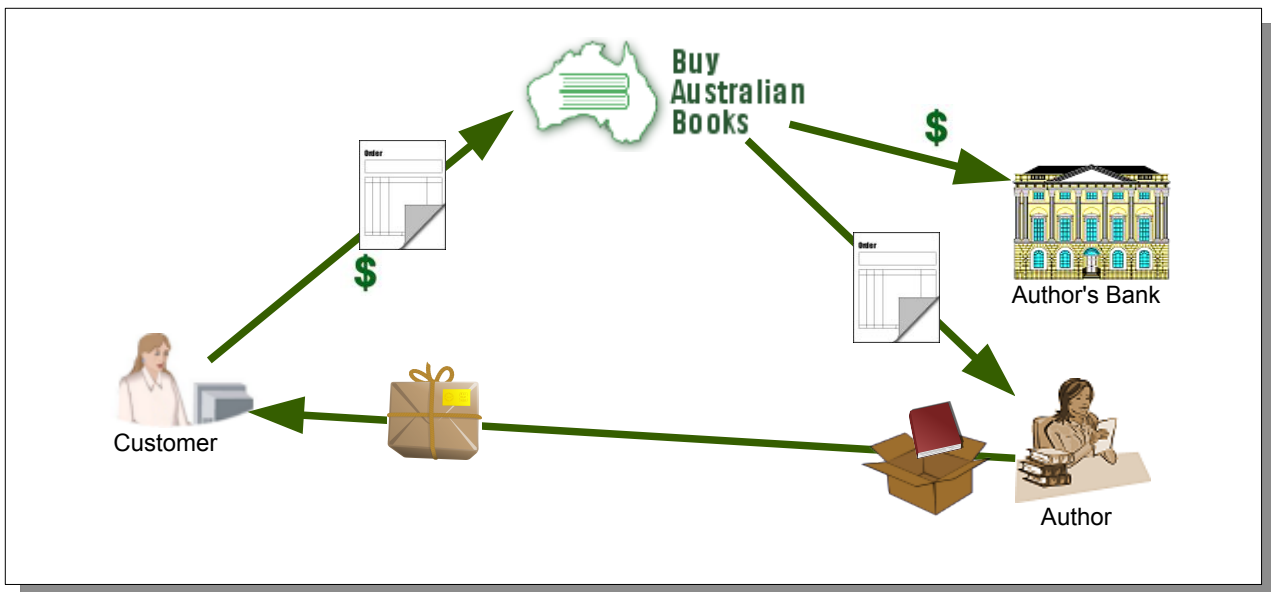

Are you an Australian author or writer? Have you written a book or story that you would like to sell on BuyAustralianBooks.com.au? The criteria are: you must be an Australian citizen, the book must have been written by you, it must be of a high literary standard, must not be offensive and must not promote or incite any illegal or racist activities. Buy Australian Books reserves the right to decide whether to list any item on the website or not.

We accept both traditional printed publications as well as ebooks. Books may be in any genre and any style. We accept prose and poetry, fact and fiction.

There are no joining fees, no exit fees, no ongoing fees – we make our money from the commission on the sale of the books. You are free to list your books with us for as long as you like.

How It Works – Printed Books

The system is very simple: you list the book on our website, a customer orders the book and pays for it, we send you the order details and the payment less our commission; you post out the book and advise us when you have done so; we update the order status so the customer can track the order.

If you have printed books to sell, contact us – info [at] buyaustralianbooks [dot] com [dot] au - to discuss the pricing, postage and commission. Send us a copy of the book. If you have a description of the book, images of the cover, reviews, excerpts etc, send us those as well. If you don't have any of these, don't worry; we will use the book to obtain the images and description.

How It Works – eBooks

The ebook system is even simpler: you list the ebook on the website, the customer pays for it and is given a link to download the book; the payment less our commission is paid into your bank account. We will need the ebook to put on the site, a description of the ebook, and reviews, excerpts, etc if you have them. The more information we can put on the site about your book, the more information the customer has to help make the decision to buy it.

Pricing

BuyAustralianBooks.com.au does not specify the price you charge for your work or the amount you are going to charge for postage and handling. That is up to the individual author. The price shown on the Buy Australian Books website is in Australian dollars and is the total price, i.e., the retail price plus postage, or the sale price plus postage as the case may be. For example, a book might have a RRP of $9.95 and a postage charge of $2. It would be shown on the website with a price of $11.95.

When setting the postage charge you should bear in mind that it should cover posting the item to anywhere in Australia.

Orders from overseas will be accepted but customers need to contact Buy Australian Books first to determine what the shipping charge will be.

Orders And Payments

Customer payments are made online to Buy Australian Books. Once we have received the order we forward to you the paid amount less our commission (typically 40%). Using the previous example, this means that the author gets $5.97 ($=$9.95 \times 60\%$) +$2 or a total of $7.97. The Payments can be made to you either by direct deposit to your bank account or via paypal whichever you prefer.

We will need your email address so we can send you the orders for your book. If you have multiple email addresses we need one which you check at least daily. This is to ensure that when a customer places an order, it will be processed promptly. Prompt deliveries mean happy customers; happy customers mean good publicity; good publicity means more sales; more sales mean more dollars for you.
